

25X1

19 November 1946

Country: U.S.S.R.

Subject: "Ilyushin - 12" Aircraft

25X1

1. A new aircraft designed by S.V. Ilyushin, called the "Il-12" is equipped with two engines designed by Engineer A. Shvetsov. It carries twenty-seven passengers. The alternative commercial load of an "Il-12" is three tons. It carries a crew of five. The cruising speed is 350-375 km. per hour up to a distance of 2,000kms.
2. This aircraft is fitted with the latest equipment for night flying and for blind landing. A fully laden machine is able to fly with one motor,

25X1

SECRET

CONTROL
U.S. OFFICIALS
ONLY